

Joe Schindler

Joe Schindler is Vice President of Finance Policy & Analytics at the Minnesota Hospital Association (MHA) where he has worked for over 34 years. MHA represents hospitals and health systems in the state of Minnesota and works on their behalf in service, advocacy and data-led improvement to enhance the health of Minnesotans. Joe is responsible for leading the association's strategies of data-led improvement, finance policy and business partnerships. Joe staff's MHA's Finance, Workforce, CMIO and Small, Rural committees. His duties include Medicare and Medicaid policy analysis, payment reform and advocacy. He maintains relationships with key state and federal regulatory agencies. In addition, he is building MHA's new endorsed business partners program.